

AJ (Amanda) Ichniowski
Ellicott City, MD
amanda.f.ichniowski@lmco.com
amanda.ichniowski@gmail.com
443-618-2644

Career Statement Summary:

A fourth year in college studying software engineering with skills in programming languages C, Java, and Python. After their two summers of internships, they aspire to work more with vulnerability testing, software engineering, and reverse engineering. They have experience from working on a personal project video game that is currently text based with the backend written in Java and exploring vulnerability research and testing in their 2026 summer internship with Lockheed Martin.

Education:

Marriott Ridge High School, Marriottsville, Maryland - graduated June of 2023

Towson University, Towson, Maryland - will graduate in May of 2027

Work Experience:

(ACE) Clark's/Westlake Hardware Sales Floor Associate and cashier, March 2023-May 2025

- Learned to handle money by running a register, dealing with money and transactions.
- Developed communication skills answering questions and offering directions or advice (in person or on the phone).
- Developed conflict resolution and problem solving skills by solving problems through providing solutions, options, and information.

Lockheed Martin RMS Intern - College Student Non-Tech Sr, June 2025-present

- Developing written communication skills facilitating meetings and emails.
- Researching cyber security and multitude of topics pertaining to computer science.
- Researching vulnerability testing methods utilizing Linux with the intention of understanding the exploitation development process.

Skills:

- Python
- Java
- C
- Linux - basic skills in college semester and in summer at LM
- Wireshark
- Wordpress websites
- Photopea (photo editing application)
- Jira (ticketing system)
- Prolog - basic skills
- Minicom (text-based terminal emulator for Unix-like systems)

Awards/Honors:

- Discarded: What's Worth Saving Art Exhibit 2022 - photo featured at Howard County Center for the Arts Exhibit
- Marriotts Ridge High School Fine Arts Departmental Award for Photography (2023) – chosen from graduating class to receive the award for my unique exploration in the photography medium and creation process
- Howard County Lions Club scholarship – 2023
- Senatorial Scholarship – 2023
- Accepted into Towson Honors College 2023